Application Instructions for National Youth Delegates for Canada to the 12th Commonwealth Youth Forum

The Royal Commonwealth Society of Canada (RCS Canada) invites you to submit your application to attend the 12th Commonwealth Youth Forum (CYF) as one of two accredited Canadian delegates. The Forum will take place in Kigali City - Rwanda, from 21-23 June 2020. If you are a young person between the ages of 18 and 29 and have experience in youth advocacy and development, apply today!

We are looking for two youth leaders (gender balanced) to play an integral role in the CYF. Both young leaders will be accredited by the Youth Secretariat – Canadian Heritage. The accredited delegates will have full voting rights and be able to speak on behalf of Canadian youth in all sessions, including during the voting of the final Outcome Document. RCS Canada is spearheading the delegate selection process on behalf of the Youth Secretariat.

Successful applicants will attend the CYF and all its activities as a National Delegate for Canada AND continue afterwards in Canada to serve as Canadian National Youth Delegates on the Commonwealth Youth Council General Assembly for a term of two years (2020-2022).

Successful applicants will receive mentorship from the outgoing National Youth Delegates to help transition into their roles.

Note that there is no direct remuneration for successful applicants for the duration of their term; it is a voluntary position.

The host, the Government of Rwanda, will cover in-country costs of the Forum, including:

- Transport from the Kigali International Airport to the delegate's hotel/conference centre.
- Shared hostel-style accommodation for 4 nights from 20-23 June 2020. Arrivals are scheduled for 20 June 2020 and departures one 24 June 2020. 21-23 June 2020 will be dedicated to core business of the Commonwealth Youth Forum.
- Transport costs within Kigali for official travel as demanded by CYF programme.
- Conference catering for the duration of the official CYF programme.

The airfare costs of successful individuals will be covered by the Government of Canada or the Royal Commonwealth Society of Canada.

It is the responsibility of individuals to make their own arrangements for visas, travel insurance and other expenses not covered by the Government of Rwanda, the Government of Canada, or the Royal Commonwealth Society.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Successful applicants must:

1. Be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident with current (2020) principle residence being in Canada and expected residence to be in Canada from 2020 to 2022;
2. Be aged between 18 and 29 years of age inclusive, at the time of the forum (June 2020);
3. Be able to communicate effectively - both verbally and in writing - in the English language;
4. Be available and medically fit to travel to Kigali and participate fully in all sessions of the Youth Forum between 21-23 June 2020 [arriving on 20 June and departing on 24 June];
5. Upon return from the Commonwealth Youth Forum (CYF), submit a report on their experiences to RCS Canada, its Branches, and the Government of Canada on their experiences at the CYF.

Delegates should also be able to demonstrate:

6. Active engagement in the youth development sector through community projects or outreach work;
7. An interest in global and Commonwealth issues, including through collaboration with other young people across the Commonwealth;
8. A commitment to work with the Government of Canada, RCS Canada and its Branches, and other youth networks, youth leaders, and youth serving organisations – to consult as part of preparatory work leading up to the forum and to help share the conclusions and youth-led actions after the event. Having additional access to youth networks in Canada beyond the listed above is an asset;
9. A dedication to strengthening links between young people of the Commonwealth, including through the successful continuation of the Commonwealth Youth Council (CYC) and a commitment to contributing to promoting the projects and initiatives of the CYC in Canada for the duration of their two-year term, taking on additional roles/responsibilities as appropriate.
