

THE ROYAL COMMONWEALTH SOCIETY OF CANADA

November 11, 2016

RCS Canada commemorates Remembrance Day

Montreal - Today and everyday, let us remember and honour those Canadians who have bravely fought in defense of Canada, the Commonwealth, and the freedoms we enjoy today. Past and present, the Canadian Armed Forces have worked on our behalf to secure peace on the international stage and serve the world through our peacekeeping missions.

On this day, we recognize not only the past but also the members of our Armed Forces who continue to risk their lives for Canada. Each of us must continue to uphold our solemn obligation to our country's men and women in uniform, our veterans, and their families. From coast to coast to coast, these men and women exemplify true patriotism and the best of what it means to be Canadian.

Please join us in expressing our gratitude to all those who have acted so courageously to keep us safe. Let us come together to thank and support those who have protected us without fail. We will remember them.

About RCS Canada

The Royal Commonwealth Society of Canada (RCS) is both a learned Society and club, non-partisan, independent of governments and supported solely by public generosity. The RCS engages with its youth, civil society, business and government networks to address issues that matter to the Citizens of the Commonwealth. Its primary focus is to the promotion of young people throughout the Commonwealth. For more information, please visit www.rcs.ca.

For more information, email info@rcs.ca.